INVESTMENT OBJECTIVE AND STRATEGY

The UnionBank Large Capitalization Philippine Equity Portfolio is a peso-denominated equity fund that uses a strategy that approximates the returns of the Philippine Stock Exchange Index (PSEi), while adding value through active stock selection. Its core investment components are large capitalization stocks listed in the PSE. Relative weights between PSEi stocks as well as opportunistic allocation into non-index issues (e.g. IPO's) may vary from time to time, depending on the investment manager's outlook on stock valuations. Research plays a central role in the development of stock valuation views of investment managers.

OUTLOOK AND STRATEGY

The market shot up for June and closed 5.3% higher month-on-month, nearing the 8,000 levels once again despite the Brexit rocking financial markets globally. This marks another month of inflows buoyed the country as we outperformed our regional peers. With a seemingly better insulated economy from the UK's decision and a generally strong foundation, the Philippines became a target for passive flows and broad based buying as block orders and MOCs occurred throughout June. Another catalyst investors are hoping to bank on are the presumed reforms to be executed by Rodrigo Duterte, who has officially become the President of the Republic of the Philippines. If he can accomplish his wide array of reforms and policies, ranging from income tax reductions and junk food tax to revisiting REITs and improving infrastructure spending, we may see corporate earnings justify the expensive valuations of the market at this point.

The market continues to trade at resistance levels and may consolidate as the market waits for more catalysts to appear. We are maintaining our general strategy of staying nimble by concentrating on more liquid names as we rebalance given market conditions.
