Fund Manager's Report

Stocks climbed for the fourth straight month as PSEi rallied another 3.19% and hitting an all time high intra-month at 7,355. Part of the climb can be attributed to the re-evaluation of the net asset value of property players like Megaworld given the higher than expected bids on lots in Bonifacio Global City. The market was poised to move higher but index heavyweight PLDT and Globe both had remarkable drops in their stock prices as the duopoly's internet based promotions cause concerns over losing margins to protect market share.

Industrial firms were the big winners this month with a steep climb (7.97%), the sixth straight month it has gone up. The Property sector was right behind (6.54%) with Financials (4.76%) and Holding firms (4.13%) both closing in the green after being down the month prior. The Services sector saw fell (-4.94%) along with Mining and Oil (-2.78%).
