Fund Manager's Report

The index went as low as a 4.5% drop intra-month before bargain hunter helped cushion the fall to -0.88%, closing the year at 7,230.57. This marks a gain of 22.76% for the PSEi for the year 2014. December marked a drop across various sectors as oil prices experienced a steep drop on the back of added supply by US shale. Despite the news which caused a sell down among emerging markets, the gain of the Philippine market for the year beat its regional counterparts with Indonesia as a close runner up and Malaysia as a negative performer.

The broad based fall of the index affected five of the six sectors. Services continued to tumble (-1.76%) and the Mining and Oil (-1.60%), Financial (-1.17%), Holding (-0.88%), and Property (-0.70%) sectors followed. The Industrial sector was the last man standing with a gain of 0.44%.
